NEW YORK CITY

THANKSGIVING DAY JOURNEY

with Women of the Midwest

November 24-28, 2026

Dear Women of the Midwest,

Since I was a small girl, seeing the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade has been on my bucket list! I invite you to join me on a fun-filled, custom-tailored tour to the Big Apple!

Our journey begins with a panoramic view of the city. It also includes an exceptional Broadway show of your choice, the Radio City Christmas Spectacular, and a behind-the-scenes tour of Radio City Music Hall, a Staten Island Ferry cruise around the waterways surrounding lower Manhattan, a visit to Grand Central Station, the 9/11 Memorial and Museum, and then... Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade! Our program combines group activities and time for you to explore on your own.

Eight million residents and a five-borough spread make New York one of the most kaleidoscopic cities in the world. The culinary culture is as vibrant as you would expect: a total mix of multiethnic delicacies sold by vendors on every corner, Michelin Star restaurants, diners, craft cocktail joints, and infamous dive bars. Bicycle through the city, visit the best museums in the world, or simply "shop until you drop!" - the possibilities are endless!

New York's dynamic arts community, anchored by Broadway and the Metropolitan Museum of Art, provides extensive entertainment. At the same time, shopping ranges from high-end boutiques to handcrafted goods sold at neighborhood flea markets. What's not to love?

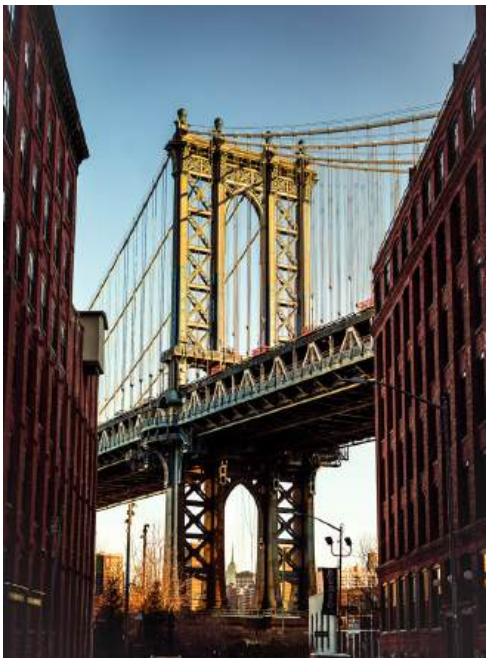

And finally, it's that time of the year! The store-front windows have started decorating for Christmas! Join me, solo or two-by-two; Let's make Thanksgiving unforgettable together.

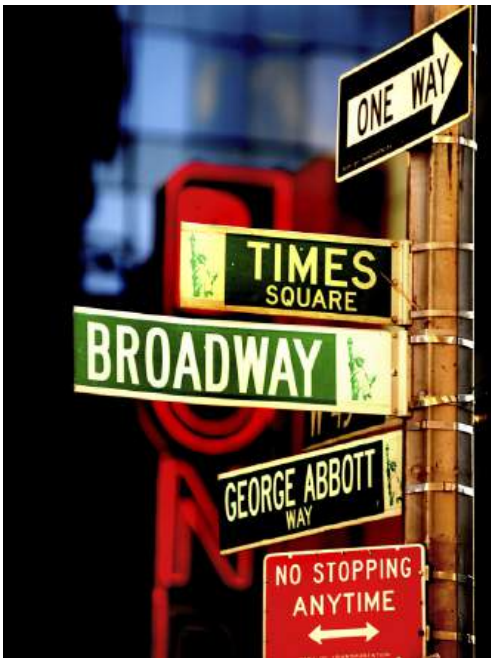

Sincerely yours,
Jennifer King

November 24, 2026 Tuesday

Our wonderful journey begins as we fly to the Big Apple, New York City.

Upon arrival, we will be greeted by our Women of the Midwest Ambassador, who will travel alongside us throughout the days in New York City.

We will board our private motor coach with our local tour guide for a panoramic city tour of Manhattan. We will pass by Central Park, drive down Fifth Avenue, swing by Battery Park with a view of Lady Liberty, and take a short walk around Ground Zero.

Say "Cheese"...Cake!

Our guide will share all the inside secrets about this amazing city with us. A lunch box is provided during the tour.

In the late afternoon, we will check in to the Millennium Broadway Hotel, one step off Times Square.

We will walk to a well-known restaurant for a fun welcome dinner tonight.

November 25, 2026 Wednesday

We will enjoy breakfast and then meet with our tour guide to head out by foot to experience Bryant Park, the location of the Public Library. We will enjoy a visit, including seeing the original stuffed animals that inspired the Winnie-the-Pooh stories.

A few blocks further down is Grand Central Station. This place is "Grand" by all means; you will love the myriad of things to taste, touch, hear, and smell in Grand Central Terminal. But for a truly remarkable experience, we will head to the Main Concourse, stand still, and look up at the zodiac mural on the ceiling, one of New York City's most beloved public art pieces. Relax and let the others rush to catch the train! After a quick lunch, we will catch the Subway and head to Ground Zero for a guided tour of the 9/11 Museum and Memorial.

Our tour guide will escort us back to our hotel. Tonight, enjoy a Broadway show of your own choice. Most shows start at 7:00 or 8:00 PM. B

November 26, 2026 Thursday, Thanksgiving Day

Breakfast is included and enjoyed with your fellow travelers.

Next, we gather to walk to our favorite spot to take in Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade. You are welcome to join your ambassador or head out on your own.

The Parade first took place in 1924, making it the second-oldest Thanksgiving Parade in the United States.

In the 1920s, many of Macy's employees were first-generation European immigrants. They wanted to celebrate Thanksgiving Day with the type of festival they loved and cherished back home. The Parade marches through the streets of New York City, featuring enormous balloons, marching bands, Broadway musical casts, and celebrity performers. It will be a once-in-a-lifetime experience to witness it in person!

Our Thanksgiving Day lunch is served at a wonderful pub. We will take a moment to reflect on all the things we are so thankful for.

Time on your own this afternoon and evening. Less than half an hour from our hotel, you can step into one of the coolest markets in the world, the Chelsea Market in the Meatpacking District. It is one of the best food halls in New York, but it's not your average neighborhood market. While it is similar to the average market in that its vendor stalls line a maze of hallways, it veers towards the gourmet end of the food markets. Several movies and series are filmed here, such as "Law and Order," "American Gangster," and "The Blacklist."

If you love to walk, we highly recommend returning from Chelsea Market via the High Line. Once destined for demolition, luckily, the community rallied together to repurpose it instead, creating the park you can experience today. But the High Line is more than a park - it is a public space where you can view art, walk through gardens, experience a performance, savor delicious snacks, or just people-watch while enjoying a unique perspective of the city. To walk the entire length (1.45 miles) takes around 30 minutes.

The Meatpacking District is a hip commercial area on the far west side. It's home to high-end designer clothing stores, and the cobblestone streets are filled with trendy restaurants and clubs that have taken over the cavernous spaces once occupied by the namesake meatpacking plants. B | L

November 27, 2026 Friday

We meet with our tour guide to take a 15-minute walk to Radio City Music Hall to enjoy a guided insider's look at this legendary place. Upon opening its doors for the first time on a rainy winter's night in 1932, the Radio City Music Hall was proclaimed to be so extraordinarily beautiful as to need no performers at all. The first-built component of the massive Rockefeller Center, the Music Hall, has been the world's largest indoor theater for over eighty years. We will discover its art-deco masterpieces, learn the secrets of the Great Stage, and meet a Rockette. At the end of the tour, we will enjoy the Spectacular Christmas Show; it's... spectacular!

Remarkable Radio City

We are just around the corner from St. Patrick's Cathedral. Follow our tour guide to visit the Neo-Gothic-style Roman cathedral, a prominent landmark of New York City.

We return to our hotel on foot, and the remainder of the afternoon is at leisure.

In the evening, we meet up and join our tour guide for a Staten Island Ferry tour (we will utilize our Subway cards to get to/from the Ferry). Get the best views of Manhattan during this unforgettable panoramic lights-of-the-city tour. B

November 28, 2026 Saturday

After breakfast, it's time to check out, store your luggage safely away, and enjoy the last hours in the city.

Find Your Favorite!

All too soon, our Big Apple journey has ended.

Mid-afternoon, we will gather to transfer to the airport for the return flight back home. B
