A Journey Through History

w/Nebraska Cattlemen Association

June 14–23, 2027

Paris Extension: June 23–26, 2027

Dear Friends and Fellow Members of the Nebraska Cattlemen Association,

We're thrilled to invite you to join us on what truly promises to be a journey of a lifetime—our upcoming tour of France! For us, it's long been a dream to stand on the very sands of the D-Day Beaches, honoring the courage and sacrifice that helped shape the world we live in today. But this trip is far more than a history lesson.

Together we'll wander through Monet's gardens, explore medieval towns, and stroll cobbled streets lined with half-timbered houses. We'll see how French farmers blend tradition and innovation, from cider-fed beef to world-famous cheeses, and taste the results right where they're made. Along the way, we'll discover the art, architecture and stories that give France its soul—from Gothic cathedrals to Impressionist harbors and the grandeur of Paris itself.

Those who wish may continue with our optional three-night Paris extension, featuring the Louvre, Opéra Garnier, free time to explore the City of Light, and a memorable farewell dinner cruise along the Seine. And our day in Champagne promises sparkling cellars, rolling vineyards, and the chance to raise a glass with friends old and new.

We can't wait to share these experiences with you—learning, tasting, exploring, and celebrating together in the heart of France. Whether you choose the main tour or continue on to Paris, this promises to be an unforgettable adventure.

Warmly,
Susan & Steve Hanson

Traveling to Paris, France

Your memorable journey begins with an overnight flight to Paris. Settle in, enjoy in-flight entertainment and meal service, and start dreaming of France.

June 15, 2027 - Tuesday

Welcome to France!

Meet your guide at the airport and head toward Normandy. En route, visit Claude Monet's House and Gardens in Giverny, where water lilies, arched bridges and graceful willows echo his most beloved paintings. Explore the home where he lived for over forty years. By late afternoon we reach our hotel in Rouen for dinner. If you're awake, take an evening stroll; at nightfall Rouen's Notre-Dame Cathedral glows with a spectacular sound-and-light show. L (boxed) | D

Discovering Rouen on Foot

Walk Rouen's historic heart—half-timbered houses, soaring Notre-Dame Cathedral, the Old Market Square where Joan of Arc was executed, the celebrated Great Clock and Saint-Ouen Abbey Church. Savor lively street life and café aromas. After lunch, enjoy free time: art lovers may visit the Fine Arts Museum; others might choose the Joan of Arc History Center, which uses witness accounts and audiovisual effects to bring her trial and rehabilitation to life. Dinner on your own tonight in Rouen's plentiful cafés or bistros. B

Normandy Farm & Bayeux

This morning we visit Le P'tit Clos Normand (The Little Norman Enclosure), a working farm where crops, livestock, and cider production create a self-sustaining ecosystem. Its famed "cider beef"—cattle raised on apple-based feed, massaged and soothed with classical music—has appeared at the Elysée Palace and Michelin-starred restaurants. The cider house crafts organic ciders, apple wines, ice ciders and distinctive vinegars. The farm also revived an 18th-century mustard tradition using its own seeds and oils. Visit the shop, tasting room and cider house, and see cattle grazing beneath apple trees. Lunch in Pont Audemer. We continue to Bayeux, where a stroll along the Aure River reveals a watermill, historic washhouses and views of Bayeux Cathedral. Wander cobbled lanes lined with stone and timber-framed houses typical of Normandy. Bayeux was the first French city liberated after D-Day and holds France's largest British military cemetery, resting place of nearly 4,000 WWII soldiers. Check-in and dinner at our Bayeux hotel. D-Day Beaches

Today we trace the path of history along Normandy's D-Day sites. We begin at Utah Beach, the only landing beach in the Manche department, stretching 3 miles from Sainte-Marie-du-Mont to Quinéville. Here American troops landed on June 6, 1944. The Utah Beach Landing Museum recounts that day and displays an authentic bomber, a landing barge, tanks and commemorative monuments. A short drive brings us to Sainte-Mère-Église, among the first towns liberated. In the village square, look up to see the mannequin on the church roof—honoring paratrooper John Steele, who hung from the steeple during the night of the invasion. Next is La Pointe du Hoc. This former German coastal battery, scarred with shell craters, shows where U.S. Rangers scaled 100-foot cliffs under fire to seize a vital stronghold. The views over the Channel are striking. We continue to Omaha Beach at Colleville-sur-Mer. Nicknamed "Bloody Omaha," it cost nearly 4,700 American lives. We will pay a visit to the American Cemetery, final resting place of 9,387 soldiers. Evening at leisure in Bayeux. B

June 19, 2027 - Saturday

Eastern D-Day Beaches & Tasting

We continue our D-Day journey at the Batteries de Longues-sur-Mer (German Coastal Battery), the only Atlantic Wall battery still holding its original guns, captured by British forces on June 7, 1944. Next, at Gold Beach – Arromanches-les-Bains, see remnants of the vast Mulberry Harbor from the cliff viewpoint—an artificial port that landed troops and tons of supplies. On to Juno Beach – Courseulles-sur-Mer, where Canadian forces came ashore. Beneath the dunes you can still glimpse German defenses, while the monumental Cross of Lorraine honors General de Gaulle's return on June 14, 1944. Then visit Sword Beach – Ouistreham, the easternmost landing site and the only one where French commandos fought alongside British troops. We cross the historic Pegasus Bridge – Ranville, seized by British paratroopers the night before D-Day, and finish with a Calvados and Norman cheese tasting at a very special farm. Evening at leisure in Bayeux. B | L | T

Mont Saint-Michel

Today, we continue through Normandy's gentle countryside toward Mont Saint-Michel, a striking tidal island and UNESCO World Heritage Site, celebrated for its abbey rising proudly at the summit. Encircled by a bay with Europe's highest tides (sometimes reaching 50 feet), it offers a charming medieval village with cobbled lanes and remains an important pilgrimage destination with remarkable religious and cultural history, often called the "Wonder of the West." Enjoy the

Dairy & Deauville

After breakfast and checkout, we travel to La Ferme de la Tuilerie, a showcase of Normandy's finest dairy traditions. This 100% Normandy herd produces raw milk for three celebrated cheeses: Camembert, Livarot, and Pont-l'Evêque. Stroll through the farm to see not only the cows but also goats, donkeys, geese, peacocks and sheep. The owners blend tradition with innovation, investing in modern equipment while preserving authentic cheese-making methods. Enjoy a behind-the-scenes look at how these iconic cheeses are crafted and meet the animals that make it possible. Lunch in Lisieux, a historic Norman town known for its timber-framed houses and the grand Basilica of Saint Thérèse, one of Europe's great pilgrimage sites. Continue to elegant Deauville, known as the "Queen of the Norman Coast." This chic seaside resort features a long sandy beach, colorful parasols, grand Belle Époque villas, luxury boutiques, horse racing and a picturesque boardwalk lined with celebrity names from its famous film festival. Check in at our hotel and enjoy the evening. B | L

June 22, 2027 - Tuesday

Étretat & Honfleur

After breakfast we head to Étretat. This dramatic stretch of the Alabaster Coast has long inspired artists—Claude Monet painted it repeatedly. Standing on its pebble beach or atop its white chalk cliffs, you'll see why: towering arches and needle-like rock formations plunge into the English Channel, their vertical power contrasting beautifully with the gentle curves of the shoreline. We then continue to Honfleur, a picturesque harbor town often called the cradle of Impressionism. Nestled between the Côte Fleurie, the Pays d'Auge, and the bends of the Seine, Honfleur enchants with colorful slate-front houses, a historic wooden church, lively quays, and ever-changing tides. This afternoon we journey to Paris. Along the way, we gather for a memorable farewell dinner, celebrating the wonderful friendships we've made and bidding a fond farewell to those returning home the following morning. We arrive in Paris this evening for a restful night's sleep. B | L | D

We continue to the magnificent Louvre Museum, home to some of the world's greatest artistic treasures, before enjoying lunch at a charming Parisian restaurant. This afternoon, we visit the spectacular Opéra Garnier, one of the finest examples of Second Empire architecture, renowned for its lavish interiors, grand staircase, beautifully painted ceilings, and fascinating history. The late afternoon and evening are yours to enjoy at leisure.
